Wall Selected as Planner for N.C. Bar Association CLE

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Jim Wall, a partner at the law firm of Wall Esleeck Babcock LLP in Winston-Salem, served as co-planner for the recent Continuing Legal Education course presented by the North Carolina Bar Association. Wall worked on the health law section's annual seminar, which was presented at the North Carolina Bar Association's Health Law Section annual meeting in Cary on April 23.

Wall's co-planner for the course was Sandra Van der Vaart from LabCorp, based in Burlington. Their continuing education program provided health care attorneys with information on a broad range of legal topics affecting their practice, including compliance, litigation, medical board regulation, corporate governance and job satisfaction.

A certified mediator, Wall has been recognized as a Legal Elite by Business North Carolina magazine and was selected for inclusion in the health care section of the The Best Lawyers in America 2009. He holds an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell. Wall was appointed to the Executive Council of the Health Law Section of the North Carolina Bar Association in 2008. Wall is a 1986 graduate of the College of William and Mary, where he was elected to Beta Gamma Sigma, the national business honor society, and is a 1989 graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law.

Wall has vast experience in counseling corporate and healthcare clients in significant contractual relationships, including relationships with employees (non-compete and confidentiality issues), independent contractors, and vendors.

Based in Winston-Salem, Wall Esleeck Babcock LLP is a boutique law firm that combines extensive legal experience with personalized attention to clients. The firm focuses its practice in the areas of corporate law, including mergers and acquisitions, healthcare law, taxation, mediation and commercial real estate.
