John Babcock Included in 2009 List of Super Lawyers

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (FEBRUARY 16, 2009) – John Babcock, a partner at the law firm of Wall Esleeck Babcock LLP in Winston-Salem, has been named one of North Carolina’s 2009 “Super Lawyers” by his peers. Super Lawyers is an annual listing of outstanding attorneys who have received a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.

To determine who is a Super Lawyer, Law & Politics magazine surveyed more than 800,000 lawyers nationwide. The survey of peers ranked Babcock and others among the top five percent of attorneys in North Carolina. The magazine has been ranking the state’s Super Lawyers since 1990.

Babcock has extensive experience in corporate, tax and securities law matters, mergers and acquisitions and commercial business transactions. He has served as an adjunct professor of law at Wake Forest University for several years. Babcock also has served as secretary of the North Carolina Bar Association’s Business Law Section and as a council member of the Business Law Section. He is a member of the North Carolina Bar Association, in both the tax and business law sections.

Babcock graduated from the University of Michigan-Dearborn in 1982, with distinction, with a bachelor of science in administration. He received his J.D. in 1985 from the Wake Forest University School of Law, where he graduated magna cum laude, and an LL.M. in Taxation from New York University in 1987.

Based in Winston-Salem, Wall Esleeck Babcock LLP is a boutique law firm that combines extensive legal experience with personalized attention to clients. The firm focuses its practice in the areas of corporate law, including mergers and acquisitions, healthcare law, taxation, mediation and commercial real estate.
